

CANCER AND HOMOEOPATHY
FORWARD MARCH – 24
NOVEMBER-2008

INTRODUCTION

It is the uncontrolled growth of abnormal cells in the body. People become panic-stricken on hearing the very name of CANCER as they think it has got no answer.

Factors Responsible for Cancer

1. Age - more common after 40 years of age.
2. Occupational exposure to carcinogen such as x-ray, radioactive substances and certain chemicals like asbestos and vinyl chloride.
3. Factors related to diet, smoking and genetic factors.
4. According to Homoeopathy it is the resultant effect of mixed miasm. Repeated suppression of other miasmatic diseases with massive doses of so called modern drugs are responsible for resulting in a revolt of the organism in the form of most complicated deadly state of disease like cancer.

HOMOEOPATHY IN CANCER

Pre-state: In this connection it will not be out of place to mention here that hereditary and genetic cancerous diathesis of infant, children and younger ones can only be eradicated and transformed in to healthy state only by Homoeopathic treatment which has opened a new vista in the history of medicine.

Initial state: In Homoeopathy there is enormous scope for its treatment of the cases where some of the individualizing characteristic symptoms are still persisting, that is when the case is just tending towards cancerous ultimate (not yet definitely diagnosable) or above the initial stage of diagnosed cancer, the adverse tendency can definitely be reserved towards the path of cure. So in the initial stage of the disease there is sure, safe and salutary curative treatment by Homoeopathy.

Advanced stage: In advanced cases of cancer it is only true Homoeopathy which can do better than any other system of medicine. It offers dependable, alleviative treatment. Its medicines can control the tremendous pain, burning, discharges and other related symptoms. Thus it improves the quality and the life and above all save the poor victim from the drastic suppressive measures (surgery, chemotherapy and radiotherapy) with various consequent trouble-lots of side effect, at great financial cost.

Diet and Regiment:

- Uncooked, half cooked food, green leafy vegetables to be encouraged.
- In take of fats, fatty things, salt, sugar, rich food, condiments spicy and warm food, cold drinks, over feeding should be minimal.
- Smoking and consumption of intoxicating substance like alcohol, tobacco, heroine and coffee should be prohibited.
- Mental tranquility is necessary so avoid worries and tensions.
- Tolerable exercise and morning walk, rest and recreation are the boosting factor for treatment.

Last but not the least so Homoeopathy has very sure, certain and reliable answer against the scourge of this terrible and fearful disease of mankind. Ultimate is the result of beginning. Homoeopathy starts and deals with this philosophy.
